

M.B.B.S FROM CHINA MEDICAL UNIVERSITY

China Medical University (CMU) is one of the top ten medical schools in China. It is a university with a history of more than 80 years. CMU started as the Military Medical School and Health School of the Chinese Workers' and Peasants' Red Army and later merged two medical schools in Shenyang : the governmental Shenyang Medical College and the former private Liaoning Medical College, both of which had a history of about one hundred years. CMU was a university affiliated with Ministry of Health (MOH) previously and became a university co-constructed by Liaoning Province together with MOH in the year 2000. CMU has 33 colleges, 63 disciplines or specialties offering doctoral degrees, 73 disciplines or specialties offering master's degrees, 7 postdoctoral research stations and 19 specialties for undergraduates. CMU also has 3 affiliated general hospitals and 1 dental hospital. The number of CMU staff now is 1462 and that of the full-time students is 14145. More than 800 international students from more than 40 countries are studying at CMU by September, 2015.