

M.B.B.S FROM ZHEJIANG CHINESE MEDICAL UNIVERSITY

Zhejiang Chinese Medical University (ZCMU) is a provincial university under coordinated development in multidisciplinary fields with focus on Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM). Zhejiang Training School of TCM was established in July 1953, Zhejiang College of TCM was established in June 1959. In February 2006, it was renamed as Zhejiang Chinese Medical University (ZCMU). The school is included in the first batch of universities to recruit and train postgraduate students. ZCMU, with 13000 full-time students and more than 600 international students, is composed of 12 colleges, 1 independent college, 14 research institutes, 3 directly affiliated hospitals and 20 indirectly affiliated hospitals. It offers 26 bachelor programs, covering 5 fields in Medicine, Science, Engineering, Management, and Arts. There are 3 post-doctoral stations, 14 doctoral degree programs, 48 master degree programs in ZCMU. ZCMU has actively tried to promote exchange and cooperation. It has established cooperating relationship with 62 institutes of education, scientific research and medical treatment of 28 countries and regions and enrolled overseas students from over 50 countries and regions. The university is entitled to employ experts abroad and has invited over 40 overseas experts as guest professors. With nice campus environment, excellent teaching facilities, ZCMU is the ideal place for you to study and live in!